djay has the added advantage of also working with iPad, up to and including the iPad Pro, so you get much more screen real estate to play with over DJing with WeDJ on an iPhone (WeDJ isn't for iPad as of now).. Note that if you're using a newer iPhone, you'll need the headphones adaptor too, which removes your chance to charge the iPhone without yet another adaptor.. You will see your Spotify playlist shown in the interface Djay Pro 2 is the next generation of Algoriddim's multiple award-winning DJ software.. To use Spotify on it, then, you don't use the (free) WeDJ app that Pioneer DJ recommends for the unit (check our first look review here), but instead, you use the djay app from Algoriddim, which is officially supported too..
